

Please leave the New Jersey Do Not Call legislation as it stands. Telemarketers are intrusive. Most telemarketing companies use computers that often dial the same number over and over. I've gotten three or four calls from the same company in one day! There are many other mediums for sales solicitation available that do not invade the private space of the home telephone.